Dear Friends,

Today we encounter a very often repeated image in the Gospel. In the time that Jesus walked on earth, there was even a greater divide between rich and poor. There was no social security and the poor were not to be found living near those who were secure and sometimes well off. It is even true today when you are asked for your address, which gives away quickly where you stand in the social ladder. Today's Gospel reminds us that it's not where we live or what our bank account might be like in the eyes of the Lord. Lazarus is seen in the presence of Abraham, whereas the rich man is in Hades another name for missing out on salvation, a displaced person or the land of the lost. It says much about his character that he should plead for his five brothers who are still walking the earth. The answer he received was they should listen to Moses and the prophets. He replies, they would be more persuaded by someone who has died and missed the mark. Each person must try to apply this teaching to their own lives not to others.

Big congratulations to Kezia Philby (granddaughter of Rita and Peter Cockram) and Christopher Roberts who were married on Saturday last at OLQH. The flowers are their gift to the Church.

May I thank all who give their time to the parish in so many ways that few see or understand. Please pray for each other and if you can volunteer for something that appeals to you so much the better.

God bless you all,
Fr John

Harvest Festival 5th October 10.30am Mass

On 5th Oct during the 10.30am Mass we will be celebrating Harvest Festival with a family mass. We still have some readings available for primary school aged children – please see one of the children's liturgy team at this Sunday's 10.30am Mass or email Emily on e.fanzo@hotmail.com if your child would like to take part.

Harvest Festival is an opportunity to do something for those less fortunate than we are – it's an ideal time to bring non-perishable foods for the food bank. These items can be left in the white box in the porch. Many thanks

October Day by Day booklets are in the Church porch. They are 50p each.

First Friday Mass

On Friday 3rd October there will be a 7pm Mass at St. Tarcisius Church, 227 London Road, Camberley GU15 3EY. This is followed by Adoration, the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Prayer Ministry during a time of musical worship and silence concluding at 8:30pm.
