Cycle A for Sundays Year 2 for Weekdays Psalter Week 2

Newsletter 2679

Dear Friends,

When I was in primary school (many years ago) in our home village a big effort was made by all home owners to wash the pavements, sometimes freshen the paint on doors and windows by the side of the street etc. etc. – all in preparation for the Procession of the Blessed Sacrament through the town on the feast of Corpus Christi. It always fell on a Thursday, 60 days after Easter Sunday. Now it is transferred to Sunday, but the procession still takes place. We were not interested in the religious side so much as the annual pageant that we all had some hand in preparing. Today we celebrate the gift that Christ gave to all of us, His own Body and Blood; a priceless gift which we hopefully have not lost sight of.

“I am the living bread that has come down from heaven” – today’s Gospel. Jesus lives among us in the Eucharist, He nourishes us with the Bread of Life and His Word. Let’s try and say “My Lord and my God”

Thank you for your generosity to the Hope Hub – Keep the good work going.

The Catholic Post is available in the porch.

God Bless you all,
Fr. John
