Dear Friends,

Today we move from the drama of Special Feast Days to what is called Ordinary Time. Let us not be fooled by the word 'ordinary.' There is nothing ordinary about the life of Jesus and today we read Matthew's account of the call of the apostles by name and the task they faced. There were no libraries like we have now, or TV or the internet. It was a call "to come follow me" from Jesus. To set out on a journey they could not have dreamed of. We too are called at our Baptism, our Holy Communion and every day we live. We cannot see the road ahead, it has many twists and turns, our parents are our first and main teachers, tomorrow is another day, what matters now is that we do our best today. Let us help each other. That was Jesus' way, let's make it ours also.

A very warm welcome to Canon Robert Esdaile, parish priest of Woking who has kindly offered to celebrate the 5.30pm Mass this Sunday. I am going to Goring-on-Sea.

This past Tuesday and Wednesday, the priests, deacons and a few others were treated to an in-service conference titled 'Proclaiming the joy of the Gospel in the current culture.' It was challenging and uplifting. We should not think of the Gospel in our day as something that happened long ago, but as something that happens now also and we all have a part to play.

Congratulations to Ezie and Audine Joseph who celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary last week and to Lynn and Laurence Murphy who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary last week.

The parish prayer group continues at 10.45am on Wednesday. All who can come are welcome.
