Newsletter 2701

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,
A warm welcome to parishioners and visitors on this the Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time and also Remembrance Sunday. This weekend we honour the many who gave their lives in the 1st and 2nd World Wars. A minute's silence will be observed to begin each mass. It is good for all to remember the sacrifices made by prior generations to enable us to live in freedom and side by side with people from many countries on the face of the earth. Once we lose the identity of the nation we lose our values and our soul. At this time in history, it is good to remember the sacrifices made by generations before our time.

Please note that there are Funeral Masses this Wednesday 11th November at 11.00 am for John Stevens RIP, and on Thursday, 12th November at 2.00pm for Joan Currie RIP. Please avoid using the car park on these days. Thank you.

God Bless You All
Fr John

A Thank You Message From The Hope Hub

Thank You so much for the generous support during the Harvest Season. Your generosity has helped bring warmth, dignity and hope to people experiencing homelessness and those facing significant hardship. Your support is more important than ever as we continue to see a growing number of people turning to us for help. Between March 2025 and April 2026, we supported 277 individuals, delivered 3314 Day Service Visits, Served over 7000 meals, distributed 876 food parcels, delivered 444 wellbeing workshops and activities . Your kindness has also helped us sustain out 7 bed Emergency Accommodation where we have supported 85 individuals on their journey from homelessness to stability. We are deeply grateful.

Please pray for all those who have died recently:

Joan Currie, Maggie Duncan, Sheila Purcell, John Stevens

May they rest in peace.

Preparing For Christmas

Sat 5th December 9.00am to 4pm we will be preparing our church for Christmas. All are welcome to join us for all or part of the day. We will be putting up the tree and decorations, tidying our grounds and enjoying a shared lunch. We look forward to seeing you there

Christmas Stars

In memory of friends and family who have passed away, or those unwell, everyone is invited to write the name of those they wish to remember on our Christmas Stars which will be hung on the Christmas tree. Blank stars can be found on the table in the porch

Festive Concert at OLQH

Experience a candlelit journey into the spiritual heart of a medieval Christmas. Former parishioner David de Winter is delighted to bring the renowned male vocal quintet plus reader, Opus Anglicanum, to OLQH with their festive concert, Mediaeval Carols on Thursday 10th December. Doors open at 7.00pm for a 7.30p, performance. From simple Gregorian chant and devotional polyphony to joyous & raucous festive songs (some of which are over 800 years old), listen to beautiful mediaeval readings interspersed within the music creating peaceful moments of quiet reflection.
